ARTICLE I DUES AND FEES

Section 1 Dues

a. All qualified members shall be eligible for active membership upon receipt of payment of annual dues and meeting the requirements of the Constitution. Membership dues shall be part of the conference registration fee. Individuals desiring to become members after a conference may pay a membership fee of $20.00.

Section 2 Fees

A procedure for pre-registration for each conference shall be established. The amount of the pre-registration fee and the registration fee at the conference shall be determined by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP YEAR

ARTICLE III MEETINGS

The Association shall hold at least one regular fall and one regular spring meeting each year. The election of officers shall be held at the fall meeting. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Council. All meetings shall be work sessions continued with a business session to allow official regular action to be taken on matters of the Association.

ARTICLE IV ELECTIONS

Officers shall be elected as follows:

Section 1

The Nomination/Elections Committee shall prepare a list of candidates for each position of President-Elect, Vice-President for Membership, Secretary, Treasurer and NAFEPA Representatives. The President-Elect shall automatically become President upon completion of the year served as President-Elect. The permission of each candidate must be secured prior to his/her name being nominated.

In order to run for the position of President-Elect or Treasurer, the person must have served for a least two full years in one or more of the following positions: a Regional Director, served as Secretary or Vice President of Membership, served as the Chairperson of one of the standing committees or served on the Program Planning Committee. In order to serve as a NAFEPA Representative, the person must have served as a Past President, or have worked on the legislative committee for three years.

Regional Directors shall be elected by the respective regional members. If during the election process there is a tie vote, the regional members will take another vote via secret ballot. If that vote results in a tie, then the two people will draw for the position. The person who is not selected as the representative will become the alternate regional director.

Officer designees and Regional Directors shall have been voting members of the Association for a period of not less than two membership years.

Section 2

Provision shall be made for nominations from the floor for the positions of President-Elect, Vice-president for Membership, Secretary, Treasurer and NAFEPA Representatives provided prior permission is secured from the person nominated.

Section 3

Candidates receiving a majority of the votes shall be declared elected. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of the votes on the first ballot, additional ballots will be cast until a candidate receives a majority of votes. In such subsequent ballots, the slate of candidates will consist of those candidates, ranked by percentage of votes cast, who collectively received a simple majority of the votes cast. In the event only one candidate is placed in nomination for an office, that candidate may be elected by voice vote of the assembly (VIVA VOCE).

Section 4

The newly elected officers shall assume their duties immediately after the fall meeting at which they are elected.

Section 5

In the event that the President-Elect, Vice-president for Membership, the Secretary, Treasurer, or NAFEPA representatives cannot complete his/her term, the Executive Council shall appoint a qualified voting active member to serve the remainder of the term, if it is beyond one month of when

In the event that a Regional Director cannot complete his/her two-year term of office, the alternate, selected at the same time as the Regional Director, will serve as the Regional Director until the next election is held. If there is no alternate or the alternate is not able to serve, the President shall request a meeting of the membership in that region to select an alternate that will serve on the Executive Council. In the event that a Regional Director cannot attend an Executive Council meeting, the alternate will attend the meeting, with voting rights, to represent the voice of the region.

ARTICLE V DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1 The President

The President shall preside at all regular and called meetings of the Association and otherwise discharge the duties incumbent upon this office, including those duties elsewhere stated in this Constitution and By-Laws. He/she shall appoint the Parliamentarian and Chairpersons for standing committees for his/her term of office and serve as an ex-officio member of all committees.

The President will assure that (1) the Executive Director, Treasurer, and President positions are bonded; (2) an annual audit of the Association's finances is completed and the results are duly reported to the membership; (3) an annual evaluation of the Executive Director is completed each year by the end of January. The evaluation will contain information gathered from the Executive Council.

Section 2 President-Elect

The President-Elect shall preside in the absence of the President at all meetings of the Association or the Executive Council and shall perform such duties as may be delegated by the President and the Executive Council. The President-Elect shall have the primary responsibility for planning, coordinating and implementing conferences, workshops and programs for the Association with the approval of the Executive Council.

In case the President is unable to serve his/her term, the President-Elect will assume all duties of the President in addition to his/her duties as President-Elect.

Section 3 Vice-President for Membership

The Vice-President for Membership shall be responsible for recruiting new members, promoting the retention of current members and disseminating a list of the membership to the officers.

Additionally the Vice-President shall be responsible for securing facilitators for conference sessions and for conference evaluations.

Section 4 Secretary

The Secretary shall keep accurate written records of the proceeding of all business meetings of the Association and the Executive Council. These records shall include but are not limited to the minutes, agendas and correspondence. After approval by the members of the Executive Council, all records will be filed with the Executive Director for inclusion in the permanent files of the organization. Copies of minutes must be provided to the President within two weeks after the meeting date.

Section 5 Treasurer

The Treasurer shall work cooperatively with the Executive Director in the receiving and disbursing of all monies, keeping an accurate accounting of Association's funds, and filing all necessary documents with the Internal Revenue Service.

In addition, the Treasurer will monitor the Association's fund balance to assure that it does not fall below $150,000. With the assistance of the Executive Director he/she shall assure that an annual audit of the organization's finances is conducted and that the results of the audit are presented to the

Section 6 Executive Council

The Executive Council shall approve or amend the budget of the Association, determine the dates and places of all conferences and workshops, authorize the appointment of special committees as necessary, and in general attend to the business of the Association.

Section 7 Executive Director

The Executive Director shall be responsible for fiscal operations; conference and workshop planning including registration, facilities, exhibitors, and printing; ACET mailings; legislative information; and other duties as designated by the President and the Executive Council.

Section 8 Dereliction of Duties

Officers elected by the total membership (President, President-Elect, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer) who fail to fulfill the duties of the office may be considered to be derelict in his/her duties and may be removed from office as stated in Article V: Duties of Officers.

Dereliction of duties may include any one of the following:

1. Failure to attend meetings (any officer missing a meeting must submit in writing an explanation of the reason they were absent to the President or in the case of the President, the President-elect within five days of the absence.
2. Failure to file reports (within two weeks of the meeting for Board Minutes, Planning Committee Minutes and Reports, Treasurer's report, Conference Reports). Reports must be sent to the President and/or President-Elect via e-mail or hard copy within the two week timeframe following a meeting. Missing the deadline more than twice will be cause for review.
3. Failure to reply to directions from the President and/or President-Elect within one week of receiving a request. Failure to reply more than twice will be cause for review.
4. Failure to provide Financial Reports or any other report requested by the President and/or President-Elect will be cause for review.

In the event an elected officer misses three meetings (regular, called or committee) during a membership year, the officer may be removed from office if the Executive Committee considers the absences "unexcused". The Executive Committee will select a member to serve the remainder of the removed officer's term as specified in Section 5 of the By-laws.

In the event an officer is removed from office, the membership will be notified at the next regular meeting of the organization.

The replacement for the removed officer will be named by the Executive Committee, with or without input from the Past President. If the removal occurs within one month of October during the election year, the office will remain open until the election process is completed. If it is not an election year for that office, a replacement will be named to fulfill the term of that office. The general membership will be notified if the position is up for election and/or if a replacement has been named to fulfill the term of that office.

ARTICLE VI REGIONAL DIRECTORS

Section 1 Duties of Regional Directors

The twenty Regional Directors will serve as part of the Executive Council and shall make every effort to be at each meeting of the council and shall plan to be present for the majority of the meeting. If
